Thanksgiving Day.

It will be seen from the proclamation of Gov. Bashford in this morning's paper, that he has appointed Thursday, the 26th of November, as a General Thanksgiving Day for the State. This is the same day as that designated in New York and other Eastern States.

The Official Canvass.

Yesterday was the day appointed by law for canvassing the official returns in this, as in other Counties of the State. But no canvass was made here—the returns, as is reported, not being all in—and an adjournment was had till to-day.

In so compact a County as ours, there can be no possible excuse for this delinquency on the part of the returning officers.

The Legislature.

The Senate consists of 30 Members. Of these the Republicans will have 18 and the Democrats 12—a Republican majority of six.

The Assembly consists of 97 members. The Republican have elected 49 members, without doubt, and probably 51. The Democrats have elected 39 certainly. The Districts in doubt, or not heard from are 1 in Lafayette, 1 in Sheboygan, 1 in St. Croix, &c., 1 in Adams and Juneau, 1 in Crawford and Bad Ax, 1 in Door, &c., 1 in Jackson &c., 1 in Marquette, 1 in Pierce, &c.,

It is hardly possible that the Republicans should have less than 52 or 54 members of Assembly, and 49 is a majority.

How about that Loan?

The readers of the Sentinel cannot have forgotten that some three weeks before elections Mayor Crose was announced to have gone to New York to borrow money for the completion of our Harbor and School Houses; that this mission was telegraphed and trumpeted, all over the State, as an extraordinary instance of his devotion to the public service; that in due time came back a despatch from the Honor, stating that he had raised the required funds; that thereupon a general jubilate was raised by the Democratic papers, over the wonderful financial ability and achievements of the Mayor; that shortly afterwards his Honor returned home, and the News announced to the admiring faithful that he had come back with his "pocket full of rocks," borrowed for the City, at 12 per cent; and that, but for the hints and innuendoes of the Sentinel, about city expenses, city debt and city credit, he could have effected this loan at 7 per cent!

Well, it is now two weeks and more since the Mayor returned, and yet he has sent in no message and made no sign about that loan. The contractors on the Harbor and School-House are short of funds. The City Treasury is empty. The City credit is at a fearful discount. Nothing "official" or unofficial, has been heard about that loan. Who has got the money? Where and upon what terms was it borrowed? Can the Comptroller, can the Mayor, can the News, can anybody tell us? Let us know about the Loan.

From the North-West.

The Madison Argus of Monday reports Eau Claire Co. at 70 Republican, Chippewa at 187 Dem., Buffalo 350 do, and St. Croix 50 do. It also says, on the authority of correspondents, that D. Mears (dem) is elected to the Senate, and J. B. Gray (rep) to the Assembly from the North-West District.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Adams County.

Big Spring, Nov. 5.

Messrs. Editors—The following is the result of the election in the town of New Haven, Adams County, Wisconsin:

The vote on Governor was, Alexander W. Randall 48, J. B. Cross 14—the rest of the State officers was the same.

For member of Assembly, A. P. Ayers, 46, Thos. Weston 15—giving Randall a majority of 34 over Cross, Ayers over Weston, 31.

For the Extension of Suffrage 36 votes.

For the Extension of Suffrage No, 12. M.

☞ The next Legislature will have to levy a tax of $160,000 to make up for the deficiency of the present year. Shanghai Government is expensive. "Those who dance must pay the fiddler!"—Appleton Crescent.

The "next Legislature," need not add one dollar to our State Tax, unless there be wilful waste and extravagance. Our City Council, however, have just added $180,000 (!) to last year's tax, to make up for present and past "deficiencies." "Democratic" government is expensive, and "those who dance must pay the fiddler"!

Newspaper Change.—Gen. A. G. Ellis, the veteran editor of the Sauk de Point Pinery, has sold the establishment to Caleb Sweeze. The General, however, remains at the editorial helm, which he has skillfully tended these twenty years past; being the honored senior of the profession in this State. Long may he wave, and some time waver!

Letters Detained.

The following letters are detained in the Racine Post Office for want of pre-payment of postage:

Hiram Mosher, Milwaukee, Wis.

Rev. Fabien, Milwaukee, Wis.

Reported Massacre of 500 United States Soldiers.—Rev. Thos. S. Williamson writes to the St. Paul Times, from Pajutazee, under the date of Oct. 26, that a report had reached that neighborhood by a young Sissitonwan Indian, that a party of U. S. soldiers, supposed to have been a detachment of the Utah expedition, had been attacked and killed by a large party of the Teetonwan Indians, near the Missouri river. The reported attack is said to have been made in the night, when the soldiers were asleep. The Indians surrounded the camp, then rushed upon the sleeping soldiers, and killed them with their knives and war-clubs before they could get their guns and horses, and not one escaped.

This is the story as told by the Sissitonwan, and Mr. Williamson is disposed to believe it.—The natural disposition of the Indian to magnify facts, must, however, be taken into consideration. It may all be true, or there may be but slight grounds for the terrible report. At all events we must wait for its confirmation before our fears that a camp of 500 American soldiers could have been so suddenly and entirely destroyed.—

The young Sissitonwan also reports having seen the notorious Sioux Chief, Inkpaduta, who is totally blind.

Racine & Mississippi Railroad.—It is gratifying to learn that the negotiations which have been pending for the sale of the 1st mortgage bonds of the Western division of this road, have been concluded, and the Company placed in a condition which enables them to proceed immediately towards the completion of their road to Freeport.

The conditions of the sale compel the application of the funds to completing the road to Freeport, and as but a small portion of the grading yet remains to be done, and the materials for the track, iron, ties, &c., are already on hand, ready to be laid immediately, when the grading is out of the way, the road will, without a contingency, be completed to Freeport by early Spring.

Nothing but the very best of credit could have enabled the Company at this time, and in the midst of the present financial difficulties, to make this sale of their securities, and we look upon it as being the best evidence of the strength which capitalists are willing, after a very minute investigation, to award to this enterprise.—Racine Advocate.

Candidates Elected.—The result of the election in this County is as follows:

For Register of Deeds, Peter Spehn is elected without opposition

For Clerk of Court, Chas E. Chamberlain, by a large majority.

For Member of Assembly, Northern District, A. M. Alling. In the Southern District, B. O. Zastrow Kussow.

The election went off very quietly, the day was unusually fine and pleasant, and the consequence was that a light vote was polled. The majority for the Democratic ticket will not exceed 1,200, next week we will be able to give the official canvass in full.—Ozaukee Advertiser, Nov. 7.

Vessels Ashore.—The late blow has proved a very disatrous one to the vessels on the lake. The schooners, G. Barber and L. W. Shoyer are ashore at White Lake. The Honest John also ran ashore but was got off. The Troy at Muskegon, the Vincennes at Bine Creek, and the Lady Jane at Stony Creek. The Calcutta lies capsised at the mouth of the river.—Chicago Journal, Nov. 10.

Shipments of Breadstuffs at New York.—The Times of the 7th (Saturday) says:

"There are now thirty vessels loading grain and flour at this port, about one half bound for Liverpool and the remainder for Glasgow. They will average about 20,000 bushels for each ship.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT: Nov. 11.

Before Clinton Walworth, Police Justice.

Drunk—Mary Hockley and John Grady, fined $1 each.

Disorderly—Jacob Nunnemacher, fined $1.

Assault and Battery.—Frederick Bressing, fined $10. John Fitzgibbon, fined $5.

Not Guilty.—William Wiletz charged with assault and battery was found not guilty

Now is the time for planting trees along our streets. Something, we notice, is being done in that way, but not so much as ought to be done, not merely for the beautifying of the city, but for adding actual money value to the lots so adorned. We trust that advantage will be taken of the good weather remaining, to do a great deal of this excellent work.

Marriages in the Police Court.—During the past week Justice Walworth has been called upon, in his official capacity, to unite no less than three couples in the "holy bans of matrimony." The parties were all Germans, and in every case the gay Lothario was brought up at the solicitation of the fair one, and given his choice, whether to take the blooming lass to his "bed and board," or have bed and board furnished him at the expense of the State.

Theatre—Benefit of Mrs. Hill.—The performances at the Theatre, this evening, are for the benefit of Mrs. Hill, a pains-taking and meritorious actress. She offers a good bill for the occasion; the tragedy of "Othello," and the favorite play of "the Forest Rose." Both pieces will be well cast and will be well rendered.

To-morrow night, Mr. Coombs, by general request, will repeat his great performance of Shylock. Those who failed to obtain seats at the first representation will do well to apply in season for the second.

Robbery.—A Frenchman named James Hamel, who keeps a saloon on Main street, was arrested upon a charge of stealing $3,15 from a man's pocket. The case will be examined before the Police Justice to-day.

Complimentary Benefit to W. F. Johnson.—The largest audience that ever attended a theatrical exhibition in this city thronged Young's Hall on Monday evening last, upon the occasion of the Complimentary Benefit tendered to Mr. W. F Johnson. The gross receipts were about $800, and at least a hundred persons were turned away from the door, there being no more room within the Hall. The attractions of a good bill; the disposition to give a deserving actor and estimable man a substantial benefit; and more than all, perhaps, the desire to see Mr. M. B. Coombs, one of our Milwaukee Bar, play the part of Shylock, combined to draw this overflowing house. It was an ovation of which any man might well be proud.

The public were not disappointed in their expectations of an attractive entertainment. The first piece, "the Merchant of Venice," was well cast, had been carefully rehearsed, and passed off to the general satisfaction of the audience. Mrs. Hill as Portia, acquitted herself creditably and in the Trial Scene, played with unusual spirit. Jessie MacFarland, as Jessica, Mulholland, as Bassanio, and McFarland, as Antonio, contributed not a little to the success of the piece. Launcelot Gobbo lost nothing in Johnson's hands, and the subordinate characters were fairly rendered. To the great part of Shylock, Mr. Coombs did ample justice. He was perfect in the text; his readings were scholarlike and artistic; his action for the most part natural, and his costume appropriate. The performance was excellent throughout, and many portions of it admirable. Indeed they were very few in the large and intelligent audience assembled to hear and judge him, who could remember to have seen a better Shylock. Mr. Coombs was loudly called for, at the fall of the curtain, and coming forward rightly and with good taste declined the vociferous demand for a "speech," and contented himself with bowing his thanks. May we not hope to see Mr. Coombs in another Shakespearian character?

In the after-piece Johnson, as Mr. Bobtail, in the laughable farce of "My Precious Betsy" fairly brought down the house. He was called before the curtain, at the end of the play, to receive the plaudits and congratulations of the crowded house, and thus spoke:

Ladies and Gentlemen—It is sometimes a most difficult matter for the tongue to express the feelings of the heart—and believe me I find myself in that position just at this moment.

The kindness I have experienced from old friends and new ones, during my short residence in this most beautiful City of the West, will leave an impression with me, which time can never eradicate.

This generous ovation of to-night is a convincing proof to me, of the kindness of my personal friends, and the respect and love of Dramatic representations on the part of the Public generally. I feel assured, ladies and gentlemen, it requires but a proper building for your accommodation, instead of this ill-contrived and worse arranged Hall, to meet a prompt response and liberal patronage from the citizens of Milwaukee.

Experience teaches us that a Theatre, properly conducted, has become almost a necessity in all the older towns and rapidly increasing cities throughout the country.

A Theatre adds materially to the business of the mercantile community of a city like this, and frequently brings money and visitors to the place, and strong as may be the opposition of many parties to Dramatic Representations, yet the lessons of morality taught by our Art, are as old as the origin of the Drama itself.

How numerous are the incidents that could be related of its effects upon persons wholly devoted to a life of worthlessness, whose career of vice has been suddenly checked by one single Dramatic performance.

But, pardon me, ladies and gentlemen, I do not stand here to deliver a moral lecture, in addition to this performance announced in the Bill of the evening

But I feel most anxious, and I believe I but speak the sentiments of many among you here to-night, to see a proper building erected in this city for the display of our Art, in all its various phases, where old and young can be properly accommodated, and witness such exhibitions as shall make them wiser and better.

I confess, that, to produce such effects, there needs some reformation in the professors of our Art. In former days, a proper education was deemed necessary for the understanding and faithful portrayal of an Author's meaning. It was not so easy a matter as it seems to be thought now-a-days to reach the top of the Dramatic ladder without some little preparation in the rudiments of the Art, and the Stage was not considered a "Dernier resort" for every man and woman who might fancy themselves fit for it, and thereby spoil very good mechanics and artizans.

Ladies and gentlemen, I most sincerely thank you for your kind attendance here to-night, and am most grateful to those friends who have so generously interested themselves for me on this occasion, and more especially to Mr. Coombs, for having kindly volunteered his services to aid a friend. When I announced my last appearance, I supposed it would be such; but Mr. MacFarland has offered me a re-engagement, and I shall have the pleasure of appearing again before you to-morrow evening.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Johnson has been re-engaged for a few nights longer. He is a valuable card for the management. Mr. McFarland is certainly taking all possible pains to satisfy and please the public, and he deserves their liberal support.

New Law Book—Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.—We are indebted to the publishers, Banks, Gould & Co., New York, for a copy of "A Treatise on Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes," by Isaac Edwards, Counsellor at Law. It is a digest of some two thousand American decisions on all questions relating to negotiable paper, with the principles established by the English Law Courts on these subjects, the provisions of the French Commercial Code, and of the statutes of the different States. The compilation is a very valuable one, carefully made, and useful to the merchant and business man, as well as to the lawyer. The N. Y. Tribune thus speaks of this work:

The public is already in possession of several treatises on this subject, by Bailey, Chitty, Story and others; but as new decisions are constantly made, there is room for essential improvements on the treatises already published. One peculiarity of Mr. Edward's book seems to be giving greater prominence than former treatises to the decisions of American Courts, which on this subject, already outnumber those of the English reports, and having reference to many points not touched upon in the English books.

Nor is it merely to the law as exhibited in the adjudged cases that Mr. Edwards confines himself. With a view to give his book a greater practical utility, he has embodied in it the statute provisions of the various States, which from the difficulty of getting access to a complete series of the statutes of the States will prove a great convenience. Not only is a collection of State statutes not to be looked for in any private library, there are only two or three public libraries in this country which contain anything at all complete. Our New York Law Library is wretchedly deficient on this score.

The bulk to which the law on the subject of negotiable paper has expanded itself is apparent from the size of this work, which, without any undue prolixity, extends itself to near eight hundred pages. The last chapter gives that title of the commercial code of France which relates to exchange and promissory notes.

Weather.—Yesterday was decidedly wintry. The morning found a faint coating of snow upon the grass and the planks, which soon disappeared under the sunshine, but a cold wind blew all day—so cold that the ice which formed during the night did not melt during the day. Winter is at hand.

Fond du Lac Directory.—Our friends at Fond du Lac are to have a City Directory, of which an edition of 2000 copies is to be published by Messrs. Brigham & Co. Mr. A. D. Brigham, of the firm, is in the city, and will call upon a few of our merchants, who may desire to have their advertisements inserted in the Directory, which will be generally circulated through the State.

☞ Attention is called to the advertisement of C. W. Fairbanks, in to-day's paper, of House to Rent near Wauwatosa.

Business and Politics.

The Free Democrat states that men will patronize the Printing Establishments which do their work on the most reasonable terms.

The Daily News says they purchase their Dry Goods and Groceries on that principle

If this principle is to govern our citizens generally, we shall soon have a large increase of Business; for we have the largest stock west of New York, which we are offering at much lower rates than any other house in the west.

We will duplicate any Bills made in the Eastern cities.

An impression exists that we are doing exclusive a wholesale business. This is a mistake.—The retail purchaser can be accommodated with any quantity he needs, and can save money by buying from us.

We have everything ever kept in a first class Book and Stationery Store, and do Binding, Blank Book Manufacturing and Printing, promptly and well. Try us.

Wheat, bus	1,394,710
Corn bus	6,5o6,o o
Oats, do	304 7.4

The Chicago Times, from which we take the figures, makes the estimated valuation of these articles $16,871,-077, which is, we think, largely beyond their value at the port of shipment. Thus it makes the shipments for Oct to-flour 40,675 bbls, wheat 710,166 bus, corn 118,044 do, oats 5,0 0 do, with a valuation of $1,0o5,970, whereas $7,0,000 would be a liberal estimate, at the average prices of the month.

Duties Imported into Great Britain and the U. S.—The London Mark Lane Express remarking upon the hide trade, says:

The average import of tanned and untanned hides into Great Britain during the past fifteen years has scarcely been under 60,000, although in some few years they have reached 80,000, and this is not half the quantity taken for consumption by the United States exclusive, in each case, of the home supply from slaughtered cattle.—At the American ports of New York, Baltimore, Boston, Philadelphia, and Salem, the consumption of imported hides has averaged in the past three years, 2,600,000 hides, equal to 5,2 0,000 sides of leather.

Marine Intelligence.

Notice to Mariners.—Capt. Whipple, of the Topographical Engineers, gives notice that the reflectors at the high house at Fort Niagara, Lake Ontario, have been replaced by a fourth order of the Fresnel system, giving a fixed light, which, upon a clear night, from the deck of a vessel 15 feet above the surface of the lake, should be seen at a distance of 16½ miles.

☞ Collision.—The schooner J. C. Riggs, bound from Chicago with a load of wheat for Oswego, came into collision with the schooner Milwaukee Belle, outward bound, near Fighting Island, yesterday afternoon. The Riggs had her stanchions on one side all torn off, and her main rigging carried away. She was towed back into port, and has gone into dry dock for repairs. The Belle sustained but slight damage.

☞ Another.—The brig New York, bound from Chicago to Oswego with a load of wheat, collided last night, in the mouth of the river, with the schooner Admiral.—The brig was pretty badly damaged, and was obliged to come back into the harbor to discharge. We are not advised as to the extent of the damage sustained by the schooner.—Det. Tribune, 2 oo. 9.

☞ The following have passed this port since Saturday:—

Up—barque Danube; brig Banner; schrs Berlin, Hans Crocker, May Queen, Republic.

Down—brig Sea Bird; schrs Peters Imperial, Hurricane, Fremont, Autocrat.—Detroit Tribune, 9th.

Shore Her Crank.—The steamer Forest Queen, bound from Sheboygan to this port, when about twenty-five miles below Port Washington, broke one of her cranks, and was obliged to make her way to this port with one wheel. She arrived yesterday afternoon, and will be obliged to lose one trip to repair.—Det. Advocate.

Pennsylvania Bank.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.

A meeting of the stock holders of the Pennsylvania Bank was held here this morning. Mr. W. C. Patterson who has been appointed to succeed Mr. Allibone as President of the Bank, was called upon to make a statement. He said no statement could be made but would be falsified in twenty-four hours. No statement could be made to which he would put his signature. The funds of the bank had been used in improper transactions; had been used for purposes of which only the Directors were aware of. The creditors of the bank were better known to the public outside than by the officers inside, and the books had been falsified. Mr. P. declines the Presidency. All the bank directors have resigned except Allibone who has left the country. If the bank goes to an assignment, no man will say its debts can be paid, but if carefully nursed, the bank may be resuscitated.

A Confession of Judgement.

The Janesville Standard, Ex Gov. Barstow's home organ, takes the News to task for a late slip of the pen, which caused the latter paper to come near telling the truth by accident. It says:

The Milwaukee News says "Gov. Barstow was defeated by nearly 500."

We would respectfully ask the editor of the metropolitan organ of the democratic party of Wisconsin, by what authority he says this thing. No such majority was ever seriously claimed by the opponents of Gov. Barstow, and the partizan tribunal, which, at the bidding of a popular faction, deposed the rightful executive and elevated a usurper, failed after a strictly ex-parte examination, to discover any such majority as is now so modestly conceded by the News.

We believe we have not been wanting in earnest efforts to promote the success of the democratic party; and we now desire and hope that the good cause has triumphed; yet we have no sympathy with the attempt of the News to found its hopes upon a basis utterly false and fallacious, and by conceding all the past to impose upon its readers a palpably absurd hypothesis.

To say the least, we are surprised that such a statement should appear in the News.

If we remember correctly, the opponents of Mr. Barstow held, and proved, that Gov. Bashford was elected by nearly 1000 majority, though the former was canvassed in by 143 votes. But it does seem strange that the News should acknowledge the justice of the decision of the court, and we doubt not it will make haste to retract.

The Pro-Slavery Convention in Kansas.

The bogus Convention is now in session in Kansas, making out a Constitution which it does not purpose to submit to the People for their acceptance or rejection, but which it purposes to send on to Washington direct, in the faith that the Democracy which rules Congress will ratify it at once. The following is the provision on the subject of Slavery, as adopted by a vote of 40 to 2:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SLAVERY.

PREAMBLE.—The right of property is before and higher than any constitutional sanction, and the right of the owners of a slave to such slave and its increase, is the same, and as inviolable as the right of the owners of any property whatever.

SEC. 1. The Legislature shall have no power to pass laws for the emancipation of slaves without the consent of their owners, or without paying their owners previous to their emancipation a full equivalent in money for their slaves so emancipated. They shall have no power to prevent emigrants to the State from bringing with them such persons as are deemed Slaves by the laws of any one of the United States or territories, so long as any person of the same age or description shall be continued in slavery by the laws of this state; provided that such person or slave be the bona fide property of such emigrant; and provided also that laws may be passed to prohibit the introduction into this State of slaves who have committed high crimes in other states or territories. They shall have power to pass laws to permit the owners of slaves to emancipate them, saving the rights of creditors, and preventing them from becoming a public charge. They shall have power to oblige the owners of slaves to treat them with humanity, to provide for them necessary food and clothing, to obtain from all injuries to them; extending to life or limb; and in case of their neglect or refusal to comply with the direction of such laws, to have such slave or slaves sold for the benefit of the owner or owners.

SEC. 2. In the prosecution of slaves for crimes of higher grade than petit larceny, the Legislature shall have no power to deprive them of an impartial trial by petit jury.

SEC 3. Any person who shall maliciously dismember or deprive a slave of life, shall suffer such punishment as would be inflicted in case the like offence had been committed on a free white person, and on the like proof; except in case of insurrection of such slave.

Ohio Election.

The official vote for Governor at the late election in Ohio, stands as follows:

Chase, Republican,	160,568
Payne, democrat,	158,065
Van Trump, K. N.,	9,263
Total vote,	328,896
Chase's majority,	1,603

The vote two years ago was:

Chase, rep.,	146,770
Medill, dem.,	131,019
Trimble, K. N.,	24,276
Opposition over Chase, in 1855, was	8,525.—
Ditto this year,	7,760.

LEADERS IN KANSAS.—MARCUS J. PARROTT, the delegate elect to Congress from Kansas, was the only lawyer who could be found in the Territory to defend the free state men, when indicted for Treason. Capt. WALKER, who, in command of the Lawrence militia, made the Territory too hot for Titus and his band of ruffians, is the new Sheriff of Douglas County. G. W. DEITZLER, the brave German who suffered imprisonment with Gov. Robinson, is a member of the Free State Legislature, just elected.

THE MURDER IN GREEN COUNTY.—We learn from the Janesville Gazette that the parties recently arrested as Brodhead, Green County, on the charge of having committed a robbery and murder in September last, are John A. Sawyer, the Postmaster at Brodhead, and his brother-in-law, Jesse Seaver, and a man name Ten Eyck. The body of the murdered man has not yet been found, nor is his name mentioned. A good deal of mystery yet surrounds the matter.

DAILY STOPPED.—The daily issue of the Oshkosh Democrat has ceased for the winter. The publishers contemplate starting it again in the spring. The weekly continues, and is a good paper, of large circulation, occupying a prominent position among the Republican papers of the northern part of our state.

PAULSEN'S OPINION OF MORPHY.—Lewis Paulsen, who performed the wonderful feat of playing five games of chess with different persons, simultaneously, blindfolded, assert, says a correspondent of the Toronto Globe, that Morphy is superior to all living players in everything that constitutes a thorough master of the art of chess, whether it be in knowledge of openings, gambits, and defenses, in intuitive perception, or in correctness of analysis, and the equal of any in those first requisites of a player, nerve and coolness.—He goes even further, declaring him to be more than equal to the Dii penates of the chess world—Philidor, Labourdonnais, Deschappelles, McDonell and others—basing his belief upon their published games; certainly the only criterion by which it is possible to institute any comparison.

OPERATIONS OF THE U. S. MINT.—The statement of the business of the Philadelphia mint for the month of October, shows the amount of gold bullion deposited to be $3,157,047, and of silver 656,510 dollars. Old cents deposited in exchange for new, 845 dollars. Making the total of deposits for the month 3,844,410 dollars. The gold coinage during the same time was 2,562,140 dollars, nearly the whole of which was in double eagles. The silver coinage amounted to 805,850 dollars, mostly in quarter and half dollars. There were coined during the month 15,600 dollars of new cents. The total value of the coinage of the month is 3,383,990 dollars, covering 5,472,082 pieces, of which 2,400,000 were in quarter dollars and 1,580,000 in cents.

EXPORTS OF GREAT BRITAIN.—The London Economist thinks that the exports from Great Britain in 1857 will exceed $600,000,000. The amount in 1855 was $579,130,000, against $478,440,000 in 1854. The chief increase during the first half of the present year has taken place in the exports to the U. S., British India, and the Australian colonies.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

A Forgery Exposed.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 7, 1857.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—On the 29th of last month I was compelled to leave for Minnesota on important private business. On my return I find my departure heralded and accompanied with various conjectures and insinuations as to the nature of my business, &c., by the then two Forty Thief organs here, which have since been made one, and the following letter was published in them respectively on the 30th and 31st ult., as having been written by me before I left:

[PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL.]
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 27, '57.

COL. D. W. JONES—Dear Sir:. The bearer, Mr. ———, is an old resident of Milwaukee—a sound and reliable Democrat, and a friend of yours. He wants to get a loan from the School Fund, if there is any money on hand. He is a large contractor on the streets, and has in his employ about 100 men; and if you can let him have the money, it will be a good job, at the same time relieve me from the necessity of paying him for work, which he has done for me, and which, in these pinching times, I am unable to pay without an extension.

The Democratic ticket, in this county, with the exception of Cross, will have about 5,000 majority. Randall will not get over two thousand majority in this place. Huebschmann is with us. Everything looks well. Be sure and let us have the money, as it will be a mutual benefit. Very respectfully,

J. A. NOONAN.

It may surprise you when I say this letter was not written by me—was not received by Col. Jones—and is a forgery. But it will not, doubtless, surprise you, when I say that the probable forger and person who was instrument in bringing it before the public, was the loathsome and perfidious scoundrel, who is the responsible editor of the News, and whom Mr. Buchanan has commissioned to be Post Master of this city.

But there is another feature about this transaction which it may perhaps be well for the citizens of Milwaukee to know, in order that they may appreciate what their correspondence through the Post Office may have to experience:

On the appearance of the letter in question in the Daily News, a friend of mine pronounced it a dastardly forgery, committed in my absence, and when I could not expose it, and on the 30th ult., in the presence of several persons, addressed a note to Col. Jones, asking him whether he had ever received any such letter.

The morning of the 31st, and before the arrival of the western mail, the gentleman met the News editor, and was tauntingly asked by him wh ther he "had received any answer yet from Col Jones?"

On the 31st of October, Col. Jones wrote an answer denying any knowledge of any letter of the kind. That letter was stamped at the Secretary's office, Oct. 31st, and the post mark bears the same date. Both of the Madison packages for the 31st left the next mailing day and were received at the Post Office here, and yet Col. Jones' letter was not delivered to the gentleman, until the 5th inst, two days after the election, although he called three times daily at the Post Office! Is there any doubt as to where the letter was detained and who detained it?

Another circumstance: A few weeks ago, one Sunday afternoon and evening, several packages of the address of the Reformers to the Electors of the State, were dropped into the outside letter box of the Post Office. They were single, in self-sealing envelopes, carefully closed, and franked by the Hon. John F. Potter. But three or four persons knew of the packages, and suspecting foul play, a gentleman, when in the Post Office, Sunday evening, asked Sharpstein what were in the franked envelopes that lay on the mailing table? He was promptly told that they were Huebschman's address, franked by Potter and superscribed by Noonan and others! How did he know what was in those carefully closed self-sealing envelopes, which had never passed beyond the threshhold of an adjoining office until that afternoon and evening, and the contents of which were known to but few present, and neither of them had had any communication with Sharpstein, or any other connected with his office?

I respectfully submit to the public whether a man who is base enough to forge and publish the proceedings of a public meeting, or to forge and publish in his absence a letter of a citizen, with his signature attached, is not sufficiently base to violate a letter, or do any other criminal and dishonorable act which his judgment would tell him he could do and escape an ignominious conviction and punishment?

Your obedient servant,

J. A NOONAN.

LIBEL SUIT.—Moses Tenny, State Treasurer of Massachusetts, has sued the Boston Traveller for defamation of his character in the late political campaign in that State, laying the damages at $20,000.

"PUNCH"-ING THE TELEGRAPH.—The London Punch, irritated by the lengthy discussions about the use of "telegraph" or "telegram" for the despatches, comes down in this wise:

"Here is a bother, here's a to-do,
"About using one letter instead of two!
"And why are the Greeks to teach us to call
"A thing the spalpeens never heard of at all?
"(Unless you suppose the spark in the wire
"Was known to them by the name of Greek Fire.)
"End it with Phi, or end it with Mu,
"What does it signify which you do?
"End it with Mu, or end it with Phi,
"The point's not worth a potato's eye,
"Contemn such ultrapedantic appeals,
"And put your shoulders to these two wheels:
"Reduce the charges, which now is plundering,
"And teach the clerks to spell without blundering."

To which we add:

Relieve us from the deep despondence
Y which the Washington correspondents
Plunge us into with their nonsense,
Unreed one day and denied another.
The masses
Don't want their brains racked
By messrs.
Who send them fictions for facts.

NOW DUPED AFTER ALL.—The Albany Evening Journal tells the following election incident:

On Tuesday last Matthew Cahill was urged to vote in the 1st Ward. He at first demanded five dollars, but finally fell to two dollars. He got that sum in the shape of a bill of the "Fire and Marine Insurance Co.," of Milwaukee. The bill is utterly worthless, the concern having gone by the board a long time since. Cahill soon learned the worthlessness of the bill; but he thought he could "come it over" Mrs. O'Brien by offering to pay her an old debt of a few shillings. But she was a little too shrewd for Cahill. When she learned the trick she caused him to be arrested. He was committed for trial.

It the bill was a genuine one, Cahill is all right—since the "concern" mentioned is good for all its little bills, here or elsewhere.

THE GILA EXPEDITION.—The Washington Union publishes a letter from one of the U. S. Expedition sent into the Gila country. The particulars are interesting.

The Union says;

You have been informed that the expedition of Col. Bonneville to the Gila country to chastise the Apache Indians has accomplished its mission. About thirty Indians were killed and about forty women and children taken prisoners. Some five thousand sheep were retaken. Three of the Coyotero Apaches came to the agency of Dr. Steck to sue for peace. They acknowledge that they had stolen sheep, and that one of their men had killed Agent Dodge. They also stated that the murderer was in their camp when attacked by Col. Bonneville, and was killed.—They said that all their captains had held a council, and agreed to give up all their lands, their water, their grass, stock and their gold mountain for peace. Their agent informed them that he wanted none of these. If they would behave themselves they could have peace; but if not, they would be still more severely chastised.—They left in the finest humor, with a promise to bring their captains. The prisoners have been ordered to be released.

THE NEW COUNTERFEIT.—The following is a description of the new counterfeit 10's on the Gloucester Bank, Mass., which are afloat to some extent in this State. The vignette is a dock scene—ships, steamers, &c., on the right, and workhouse, bales, and loaded drays on the left. The die work on the left end, with the word TEN across it, is very fair—as is the small ship, with spread sails on the right; but the shading of the letters in the body of the bill is bad. The paper is hard and firm, and has an oily appearance.

Late From the Pacific Coast.

[From the San Californis, Oct. 11.]

Owing to the return of the Golden Gate, which left this port on the 5th inst., we are enabled to forward by the Golden Age, which leaves to-day, a week's later news than that which appears in our regular semi monthly issue.

On the night of the 6th when three hundred and fifty miles below Monterey, the centre shaft of the steamer was broken, and but half a revolution was made before the vessel stopped. The damage was sufficiently repaired by the next afternoon to enable the steamer to make her way hither with the aid of one wheel and sails.

The officers by their skilful management and attention to their duties, won the favorable consideration of the passengers, who held a meeting and passed complimentary resolutions, which will be found elsewhere in this issue. The Gate reached here safely on the morning of the 10th.

At daylight of the 6th, rain commenced falling, and until the 9th, showers at intervals visited all parts of the State; more copiously in the interior than in this city. As is well known many of our mining population are at this season hard at work in the beds of the streams, and it was feared that the recent rapid rise of water would sweep away their dams and flumes, and seriously injure their works, if not destroy them entirely.

But, so far as we have learned, comparatively little harm has been done by the rain, and, as it is again clear, the probabilities are that these industrious sons of toil will yet be enabled to exhaust their claims of the treasure which they contain. Other branches of mining are being prospected as successfully as usual.

Six more prisoners had made their escape from the State penitentiary, and have not up to the present been re captured.

The Stockton Artesian well had been bored to a depth of 923 feet, and although a considerable stream rises to the surface, the work is to be continued.

Governor Johnson has issued his proclamation in which he states that the requisite number of votes having been cast, the people are obligated to pay the debt.

Washington Territory.—The U. S. steamer Active, Capt. Cuyler, arrived here from Puget Sound on the 8th.

The war between the Clatsop and Clallum tribes of Indians rages more fiercely than ever. The whites were unmolested. The boundary surveying expedition had done little as yet, but are awaiting the arrival of the British vessel Plumper, one of the survey ships.

Operations before Delhi.

Desperate fighting—Reinforcements to the Besiegers—when the attack will be made.

Bombay (Aug. 31.) Correspondence of the London Times

My letter of the 15th of this month brought down the narrative of the siege of Delhi to the 27th of July, when four successive days of quiet had followed the latest engagement with the enemy, that of the 23d. For three days more, making in all the unprecedented number of seven—that is to say, up to the evening of the 30th—our pickets remained unmolested, and an occasional shot from the bastions alone testified to the presence of an enemy. Friday, the 31st, was the anniversary of the Mussulman festival, called the "Buckree Eed," and it was reasonably anticipated in camp that on that day the long silence of the mutineers would be broken. It was true that our spies from the city had at one time reported the existence of an ill-feeling between the Hindoo and Mahommedan Sepoys, which tended towards a refusal by the former to join in the celebration of a feast day by the latter. But later and more correct intelligence represented that the jealousies of the Hindoos had been allayed by the watchful care and unsparing promises of the King of Delhi and his principal Mussulman advisers, and that, for the present at least, no want of disability was to be looked for in the proceedings of the rival races.

On the morning, then of the 31st, it gave little surprise to see the enemy issuing from the city city in force. One large body, coming out of the Cashmere gate, moved rapidly to the right to avoid the fire of our left battery at Hindoo Rao's house, and maintained throughout the day a desultory fire at long range upon our left pickets at Metcalfe house, and upon the centre battery.—At the same time a powerful force of all arms moved out, by the Ajmere gate, and took the road to Rhotuk, in our right rear, as far as Busy, on the canal, where they made an attempt, rendered abortive by a rise of the water, to replace the bridge at that point, which we had blown up. The fire from the walls was hot and well sustained throughout the day, especially from the Moree bastion, at the north-western angle of the city, which mounted 24 pounders.—Towards evening the party from the canal returned, and a general attack upon our advanced posts commenced, which lasted all that night, all the day and night of the 1st, and well into the morning of the 2d.

Never before had the enemy displayed so great an amount of determination as in this prolonged engagement. Covered by the fire of several field pieces, and animating each other with loud cries of "Ghylo bhai!" ("On brother!") they came nearer to our breast works than they had ever done before, though their courage failed them for the final rush.

Our men were kept well under cover, and with a slight loss to themselves inflicted heavy punishment upon the enemy. When, about noon on the 2d, the rebels drew off and the firing ceased, their dead and wounded lay in heaps before our works, and long strings of carts were employed all the rest of the day in removing them to the city. On our side fell Capt. Travers, of the Punjab Rifles, an officer, of note in the warfare with the tribes of the Affgnan border, and nine men. Thirty six of all ranks were wounded.

On the day following that of their bloody repulse, the 3d, the enemy dull and dispirited, their enthusiasm due mainly to potent physical stimulants, chilled and dead, never fired a shot. So on the 4th and 5th. On the 6th they exhibited a little renewed vitality. Their attack on the pickets was but feeble, and the party that made it soon returned to the city, but the fire from their artillery lasted some hours, and cost the life of an officer, Lieutenant Brown, of the 33d Batallion.

THE CITY SEXTON OF CHICAGO ARRESTED FOR BODY SNATCHING.—Martin Quinlan, the City Sexton, and a medical student, named Eli York, were arrested on Friday night for the offence of robbing graves in the Cemetery, of their tenants!

Suspicion was first excited by the grave digger, who found several graves disturbed. He communicated their condition to Ald. Green.—This gentleman conferred with Ald. Carter, and the two secured the services of Allen Pinkerton to ferret out the guilty parties.

This was done on Friday night. A sufficient force was stationed around the grounds. About half past eleven o'clock they espied a buggy moving along North Avenue towards Clark st, and gave chase. They soon overtook it and arrested Quinlan who was driving. The other two who were in, escaped, but one of them, Eli York, a student in the Medical College, was subsequently arrested. Two bodies were in the buggy tied up in canvass bags, one that of a man and the other, of a woman. One of the legs of the male was amputated, and the body was identified as that of a man who was killed some time since by the falling of a pile of lumber.

Upon further search in the cemetery two or three more bodies were found concealed in the bushes. They were in sacks, similar to those in the buggy

Quinlan was taken before Justice Milliken and committed for trial in default of $2,000 bail.—Yorkigave bail in the sum of $800.

This Quinlan is a noisy politician of the Douglas School who was appointed under the Dyer Administration, and not turned out by Mayor Wentworth as he ought to have been.—Chicago Journal.

SPEEDY JUSTICE.—One of the quickest proceedings in the administration of justice has just taken place over in Michigan. On Monday, Oct. 13th, William Crosier and William Cronum, hands on board a wood-boat belonging to Chicago, called the "Charles Sumner," were sent on shore at Muskegon for milk. While there they heard of a dance to come off at night, and after dark they took a row-boat and went ashore again. They attended the dance, and Crosier accidentally broke a window glass. William Young and John Powers procured guns, loaded them with buckshot, and swore they would shoot Crosier. He ran away, and they pursued him, but as Crosier was getting into the boat Powers shot him; he fell into the water, was picked up by his companion, but died almost immediately. Young and Powers were arrested that night; on Tuesday they were lodged in Grand Haven jail; on Thursday they were indicted; on Friday they were arraigned, tried and convicted of murder; on Monday they were sentenced to solitary imprisonment for life, and on Tuesday night, exactly one week from the time of the murder, they were lodged in the Penitentiary.

THE CRIMINAL TRIALS.—Peglow charged with the killing of Shultz last winter, has been tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree.

FRINK, his accomplice, was in the absence of legal testimony, to convict him of murder, found guilty of manslaughter.

LATER.—Just as we are about to go to press, we learn that Gammel, indicted for murder, in killing Higgins, has been convicted of manslaughter.

BRANIGAN indicted for causing the death of a Norwegian boy, has been acquitted and released —Manitowoc Tribune.

A Lady Farmer Worth while.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

We have to return thanks to Miss Sarah Jones of Mt. Albion, Kenton Co., Ky., for a bottle of molasses from the Chinese Sugar Cane, which she raised, and crushed, squeezed and converted the juice into a thick, rich syrup, exceedingly palatable. Miss Jones has a farm of seventy acres in a high state of cultivation, yielding fruits and grains in generous abundance and of the finest quality. She also understands the management of cows, with the corollary of butter making, as will be seen by an extract from a letter which we print below. If Kentucky contained many such farmers she would soon be the first State in the confederacy. But see

WHAT MAY BE DONE WITH TWO COWS.

The lady had reserved notices in our paper of the neglect of the Dairy which is so general, and writes:—

"EDS. COM.— * * I own two cows; both calved the last of June. The female calf I have raised. The male I sold on the 11th of August to Mr. Beresford for ten dollars. From that time to the 21st of October I have made one hundred and fifty pounds of butter, which I can prove by my markets man. Now it every one that owns cows would do the same, you need not complain of the scarcity of good butter."

We are tempted to add that if many had done as she has done, in another respect, there would be no scarcity of good wives. It will be observed in our mention of her name, that she is a Miss.

☞ When Col. LEE, of New York, was collecting subscriptions for the equestrian bronze statue of WASHINGTON, now standing a monument of patriotism and art at the corner of Union Park, he had occasion to visit an old curmudgeon in the neighborhood, and pulling out his subscription paper, requested him to add his name to the list. But old Lucre declined respectfully.

"I do not see," he said, "what benefit this statue will be to me, and $500 is a great deal of money to pay for the gratification of other people." "Benefit to you?" replied the colonel; "why, Sir, it will benefit you more than anybody else. The statue can be seen from every window of your house; it will be an ornament; and add dignity to the whole neighborhood, and it will perpetually remind you Father of his Country—the immortal WASHINGTON!"

"Ah! Colonel," answered old Lucre; "I do not require a statue to remind me of him; for I allways carry WASHINGTON here," and he placed his hand upon his heart. "Then let me tell you," replied Col. LEE, "if that is so, all I have to say is, that you have got WASHINGTON in a d—d tight place!"—Washington Union.

MISS FLORA MCFLIMSEY IN ENGLAND.—In a letter from the daughter of a noble lord in England, to a friend in this city, she says:

"Is Miss Flora McFlimsey meant to represent a person in the highest class of life? For, you know, in England the subject of dress is one that is quite ignored in good society. We remark that such a person may dress well, or the contrary, but any lady who talked a great deal, or even showed that she thought a great deal about dress would be set down as a bore; and, as we express it, would be sent to Coventry.

"We take it for granted that the art of dress comes naturally to a lady like mind, and requires no thought or efforts; consequently any one too smart is generally set down as a person with bad taste, vulgar. That is how we settle things here, and we should not stand Miss Flora for an hour. Our papers have of late written a great deal against ladies' dress, and very rightly too, for the present fashion is absurd and unnatural."

What do our Miss Floras say to that?—N. Y. Eve. Post.

Lady Falkland, in her work entitled "Chow-Chow," gives the following letter from a Bombay butcher to his dissatisfied English customer:

"To Mrs. Collector ——— Sahib, Esq.—Honorable Madam—Madam's butler says that madam is much displeased with your butcher, because mutton too much lean and tough. But, sheep no grass got, where get fat? When comes rain, then good mutton. I kiss your honor's pious feet. I have the honor to remain, madam, your affectionate butcher, Mahomed Cassien."

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.

I HAVE JUST OPENED an invoice of goods which I now offer for sale at auction. I therefore will sell them at private sale, at 20 ₰ cent less than what they are worth, and 30 ₰ cent less than you can purchase them in the city. The goods consist of White Chamber Flannels, Colored Flannels, Twilled Flannels, some of French Merinoes, some all wool Delaines, Black Velvets, &c. This assortment is the very largest and best ever in the city.

I have also just opened one case, consisting of twelve Ladies Fine and Winter Cloaks, latest style, to be sold at great bargains.

City Auction Room.

ANYONE wanting a good stock of Dry Goods, I have now on hand the largest and best assorted stock, in this city, and if anyone wishes to sell the stock of goods is very large and is worth more than the rent. I will pay the balance in money or I will exchange said farm for good improved city property, or I will sell the said farm for good time. The farm contains 120 acres, 80 of which is under improvement, and is in a high state of cultivation. Should any one wish a great chance for some one to get a good home, one and a half hours ride on the cars from the city, would respectfully state one's heart's blood desire, with a good house and a splendid barn, which would rent in Milwaukee for six hundred dollars a year.

CALEB WALL.

N. B.—If the said farm is not sold in thirty days, I have a good, honest, sober and industrious tenant to take care of said farm and stock the same through the winter, and perhaps when the spring comes I may conclude to keep the farm. So a chance for some one to get a comfortable home for the winter. I do not care what country they are from, but will require good references.
